

STUDENT GROUPS HOTEL GUIDELINES

1. The legal drinking age in Hawaii is 21 years old and is strictly enforced. Alcoholic beverages and/or drugs in rooms will result in eviction.
2. The throwing of any objects off lanais/balconies will result in eviction.
3. Attempting to cross over from balcony to balcony is a safety hazard and will not be tolerated.
4. Only registered hotel guests are allowed in rooms. Outside visitors in rooms (other than relatives) is a security issue and will result in eviction.
5. Parties are not allowed in guest rooms, as they are a disruption to other hotel guests.
6. Hanging of items from lanais such as clothing, bathing suits and towels is not permitted.
7. No mattresses or indoor room furniture are allowed on the lanais/balconies.
8. Do not take pillows, blankets or bedspreads to the beach. Beach towels are provided at the pool.
9. Running, jumping, playing games or sleeping in common areas of hotel including the pool area is not permitted.
10. Each participant will be responsible for damage or vandalism to hotel property including the moving of any room items such as chairs to other rooms.
11. Pointing laser pointers at people is against the law in Hawaii and will be enforced.
12. Please be courteous to other hotel guests. Keep noise levels at a minimum while on property including lobby areas, hallways, elevators, balcony and room.
13. The hotel reserves the right to evict guests that do not respect the rights of other guests.
14. Incidental charges made to the guest room are the responsibility of the registered guest.
15. Each participant will have the personal responsibility for condition of guestroom. Excessive clutter that requires additional housekeeping service above normal daily service will be assessed an additional fee at the discretion of the hotel.

This list should not be viewed as all-inclusive, however, failure to follow the above guidelines may result in eviction. The company reserves the right to evict guests for unreasonable conduct not listed above. Our hotels will not be responsible for any monetary compensation or reimbursement due to hotel eviction.
