

El Dorado High School Golden Hawks Band and Color Guard

El Dorado High School Golden Hawks Marching Band and Color Guard is a top-ranking performance group in the Southern California region. Each year, our members compete and perform in over 40 events that include field show tournaments, parades, festivals, exhibitions and seasonal concerts.

The mission of the El Dorado High School Golden Hawks Band and Color Guard Band Boosters is to provide resources and support to all student members of the program, as well as the director and all staff, in order to build and maintain a top-quality music education program at El Dorado High School. The band boosters provide financial-support opportunities, while encouraging involvement from students, parents, staff, family members and friends. Our vision is to promote strong work ethics, to harvest enthusiasm and pride, to create positive experiences and to build lifelong friendships and community partnerships. Please consider joining in our support.
